Not for meBy Angie KVery hard for Mr to get into.. Forced myself through the first chapter but couldn't get any further. I had really been looking forward to this book. It was recommended to me.

ABOUT THE AUTHOR:Hippolytus of Rome was the most important 3rd-century theologian in the Christian Church in Rome, where he was probably born. Photios I of Constantinople describes him in his Bibliotheca (cod. 121) as a disciple of Irenaeus, who was said to be a disciple of Polycarp, and from the context of this passage it is supposed that he suggested that Hippolytus himself so styled himself. However, this assertion is doubtful. He came into conflict with the popes of his time and seems to ha ...
